Duhr! Fair Rules

In our region, disputes were settled under strict rules. Groups agreed on a time and a place, and grievances were aired so that balance could be restored. If a warrior was badly wounded, they would yell "Duhr!". The battle would stop straight away, and the injured person was safely carried away for treatment.

Our stop word

What word or signal will our class use to stop an argument straight away?

Why stop?

Why is it important that everyone stops when someone is hurt?

Our fair rules for solving a disagreement

Write one rule for each step.

1. Agree on a time and place .....
2. Everyone gets heard .....
3. The stop word .....
4. Help anyone who is hurt .....
5. Restore the balance .....

Draw it

Draw a picture of your class using its fair rules.
